Kurtis Parks has written over 1200 songs in every genre since the age of 13, and has led worship for the last 20 years. For the last 7 years, Kurtis has served as the Worship Director at National Community Church, a multi-site in the Washington DC area, but moved to Nashville, TN over the summer to plant Bridges church. He has produced over 30 albums for various Christian artists nationwide, on both major and independent record labels. Kurtis has appeared multiple times on television and written a book about authentic worship. Many of his songs have appeared on several top music lists, and he has shared the stage with many well-known artists, both Christian and mainstream.
